

This little booklet is presented with the compliments of
Dr. and Mrs. Sevier with the hope that it will help to keep alive the beautiful friendships formed at Greystone

Dedication

To one who commands on every occasion
The respect and love of those whom she touches;

Who contributes in her charming way
The inspiration of loyal service enthusiastically given;

To one who leads through her sincere living
We lovingly dedicate this little booklet—

HENRI

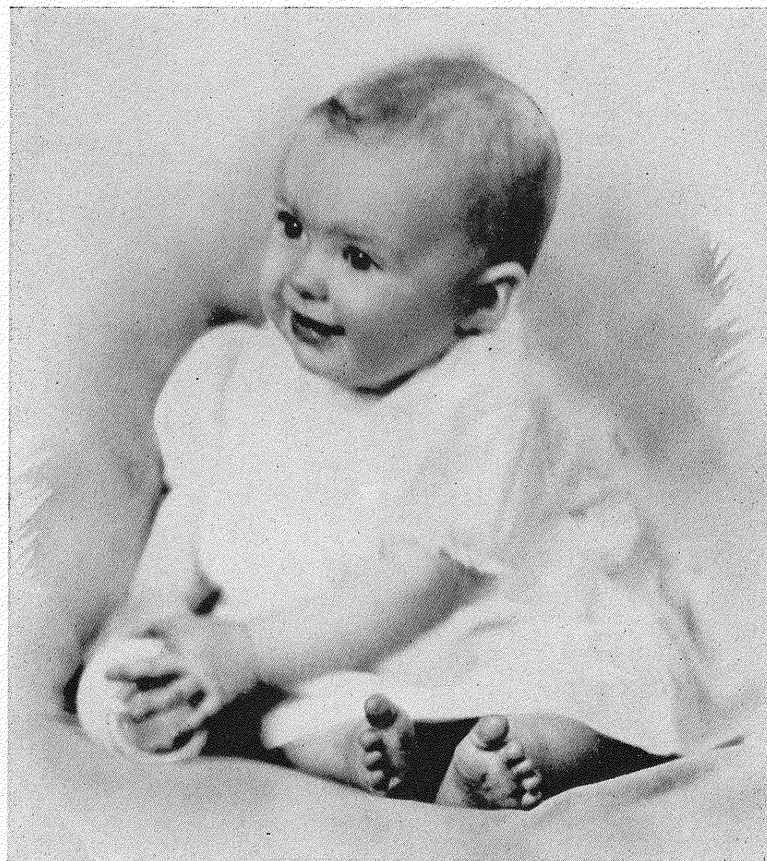

Pals

Pals, good old pals
We'll always be;
Sharing together friendships
That never, never, never sever.
Faithful and true
We'll be to you,
Forever more we'll be
Just pals, good old pals.

The Camp of My Dreams

The camp of my dreams
Is old GREYSONE,
A wonderful spot to me;
The mountains high
'Gainst the blue of the sky
It's a beautiful sight to see.
The campers, too, are dear to you,
What wonderful friends they make,
And the moonlight beams
On the place of my dreams—
It's the camp that we call GREYSTONE.

The Call of The Fire

The call of the fire
Comes to us through the shadows
That follow the close of the day.
Its flames bring us peace
And a calmness of spirit
That drive all our troubles away.
We're thankful for days
And the joys that they give us,
For nights, and the rest that they bring;
May we go on believing
In this love we're receiving
Each night 'round the fire as we sing.

The Council Fire

'Round the blazing council fire's light
We have met in comradeship tonight;
While above the whispering trees
Guard our golden memories.
So before we close our eyes in sleep
Let us pledge each other that we'll keep
Camping friendships strong and deep,
'Til we meet again.

Whispering Pines

Whispering pines, whispering pines,
Underneath the shining sky;
Rustling pines, rustling pines,
In the breezes rock and sigh.
Purple mountains draped with mist
Shine out like giant amethyst.
Pines and mountain moonlight kist,
Their vigils keep.

FAREWELL

AS ONE WAVES a fond farewell to departing friends when a great ship weighs anchor and turns its prow into the shining waves, so I stand on the shore of Greystone, our happy summer home, and wish you bon voyage.

Each one of you has woven your sweet personality into our hearts, and will ever have a place in our finest remembrance. By your unselfishness and thoughtfulness you have helped to make others happy, and thereby you have grown in those fine things of the spirit.

We wish for you a year of happiness and success and a safe return to Greystone in 1936. Until then we say, auf Wiedersehen.

Jos R. Sevier

Greystone's Calling You

Greystone's calling you-oo-oo-oo, oo-oo-oo
And you'll answer too-oo-oo-oo, oo-oo-oo
That means you offer your love to us,
To Camp Greystone;
You won't refuse to return to us
Or leave us all alone.
But if when you hear our camp call ringing clear
And we hear you answering echo so dear,
Then we will know
What camp means to you.
You'll belong to us,
Greystone to you.

Camp Greystone

Oh, Camp Greystone
Where true and loyal friendships
Are binding us fast to you.
Oh, Camp Greystone,
Surrounded by tall mountains,
Guarded by waters blue;
The days we spend with thee
Are happy and carefree.
We'll never forget tho' far away we roam
Our days at Camp Greystone.

REMEMBER the times you've had here,
Those glorious days so gay.
Remember the friends you've made here
And don't forget to come back some day.
Remember around the campfire amidst the mountains blue
That you all belong to GREYSTONE
And Greystone belongs to YOU.
