THIS LITTLE BOOKLET IS PRESENTED WITH THE COMPLIMENTS OF
DR. AND MRS. SEVIER
WITH THE HOPE THAT IT WILL HELP TO KEEP ALIVE THE BEAUTIFUL FRIENDSHIPS
FORMED AT GREYSTONE

TO ONE whose spirit is eternally young; whose heart is big enough to hold a deep love for every Greystone girl; whose appreciation and interpretation of Nature has led us all to a deeper understanding of life, we lovingly dedicate this little book to

Uncle Roy

A Message

God made every leaf, every stone, every star different. Thus they interest us and lead us on in our study of his wondrous works.

He has made each of you campers different. Each of you has contributed your part in making this one of the happiest and best summers of our camp. By your unselfishness and your thoughtfulness of others you have written into living form the ideals of Greystone.

My wish for you is that the Spirit of Greystone may find full expression in your life throughout the winter, and that we may have a happy reunion in June, 1937.

Very sincerely yours,

Jos R. Sevier

PALS

Pals, good old pals

We'll always be;

Sharing together friendships

That never, never, never sever.

Faithful and true

We'll be to you,

Forever more we'll be

Just pals, good old pals.

Greystone Spirit

Now we've come to the end of the year
Let's look back and see how we've fared—
At the friends and acquaintances here,
At the work and the play we have shared.
And then we must look for the thing
That has made us all happy and gay,
That has made hearts and voices sing,
That has kept us all playing this way.

By some spirit each nation would bind
Its people in kinship dear—
And what spirit will we find
In the nation camping here?
If we take just a short time to think,
I believe we won't search very far—
Its to GREYSTONE SPIRIT we drink
That is ever our guiding star.

Before The Sun Goes Down

There is a camp that lies upon a hilltop
And looks across a valley and a hill,
And there the light forever shines the softest in the west
And longest waits before the sun goes down.

So if the day has made your soul grow weary
And brought your eyes the shadow of a frown,
Just climb the hill that leads you to Camp Greystone
And watch the clouds light up before the sun goes down.

Greystone's Calling You

Greystone's calling you-oo-oo-oo, oo-oo-oo
And you'll answer too-oo-oo-oo, oo-oo-oo
That means you offer your love to us,
To Camp Greystone;
You won't refuse to return to us
Or leave us all alone.
But if when you hear our camp call ringing clear
And we hear your answering echo so dear,
Then we will know
What camp means to you.
You'll belong to us,
Greystone to you.

Whispering Pines

Whispering pines, whispering pines,
Underneath the shining sky;
Rustling pines, rustling pines,
In the breezes rock and sigh.
Purple mountains draped with mist
Shine out like giant amethysts.
Pines and mountains moonlight kist,
Their vigils keep.

REMEMBER the times you've had here,

Those glorious days so gay.

Remember the friends you've made here

And don't forget to come back some day.

Remember around the campfire amidst

the mountains blue

That you all belong to GREYSTONE

And Greystone belongs to YOU.
