Paddling Song

Across the silvery lake the moonlit ripples break,

Their path a magic highway seems

To lead us on in song as quietly along

We follow in the moon's bright beams.

Campers softly sing

Melodies that bring

Memories of summer joys that we have known before,

On the silent lake the green canoes go drifting by,

Moonlight falls and softly calls us from the lighted sky,

Forest murmurs sigh,

Thoughts to Greystone fly.

Pledge

Greystone, we are with you,
We will stay to the end;
Sky-high keep your standards
While your honor we defend!
And forever and forever
As it was in days of old—
We'll be loyal, we'll be faithful
To the Green and the Gold!

(Tentalow 3)

Songs of the Green and Gold

A Toast to Greystone

Here's to the camp that we love, girls,
Here's to her daughters true.
Here's to the Odds and Evens,
Girls and Councillors, too.
Here's to the sports on land, girls,
Here's to each thing we do—
Hand in hand, on sea or land,
Staunch for GREYSTONE we stand—
Here's to good, old Camp Greystone!
A toast—in which we pledge to you, to you
A song—in which our hearts ring true, ring true.
All Hail! We Hail! We pledge ourselves to you!
Here's to the camp that we love, girls,
Here's to her skies of blue.
Here's to her mountains and valleys,
Lakes and rivers, too.
Here's to the friends we've made here,
Treasures so fond and rare.
Here's to you, may you do
What is right, what is true—
Here's to good, old Camp GREYSTONE!

(Tentalow 7)

Green and Gold Lullaby

While the Gods of Dark and Dusk
Keep watch thru the night,
On the shoulder of a hill
Sleeps a camp in starlight.
GREEN and GOLD, slumber on—
'Neath the new moon till dawn;
Sweetly dream of friendships won;
GREEN and GOLD—slumber on!

(Tentalow 11)

Greystone

There's a spot in dear old U. S. A.
Where the girls are gay,
All the live-long day;
It's the best spot in all the land,
We want you to understand!
We're from GREYSTONE,
Good old GREYSTONE,
Where the big hydrangeas grow;
Where the girls are pretty
And when you see them smile
You know the reason why we walk a thousand miles
Back to GREYSTONE—dear old GREYSTONE
Where the skies are blue;
There's lots of good old friends we can't forget—
GREYSTONE, we're strong for you!

Song of the Saddle

Saddle up! And take the trail
And cantor on for
Here come the Riders of GREYSTONE
Bits and stirrups sing
As steel and iron ring
To rhythm of the thundering hoofs!
Trot and cantor up the mountains high,
Ford the rivers swiftly flowing by—
So—Riders of the Ring,
Listen as we sing
The Song of The Saddle and The Trail!

(Tentalow 11)

A Message

God made every leaf, every stone, every star different. Thus they interest us and lead us on in our study of his wondrous works.

He has made each of you campers different. Each of you has contributed your part in making this one of the happiest and best summers of our camp. By your unselfishness and your thoughtfulness of others you have written into living form the ideals of Greystone.

My wish for you is that the Spirit of Greystone may find full expression in your life throughout the winter, and that we may have a happy reunion in June, 1939.

Very sincerely yours,

Jos R. Series.

Blessing in Song

"If we have earned the right to eat this bread—
Happy, indeed, are we!
But if unmerited Thou givest it us—
May we more faithful be". Amen.

(This "grace before meat" is sung
each Greystone morning at breakfast.)
