

*This little booklet is presented with the compliments of
Virginia Sevier Hanna
with the hope that it will help to keep alive the beautiful friendships formed at Greystone*

TO ONE who in one short year has proved himself a real and indispensable part of Greystone, who has added to the happiness of each camper and has led us all to the understanding of the finer things of life... we dedicate this little booklet...

Once again, dear campers, I must bid you "Farewell". How quickly the golden days of camp slide through our fingers! How lovingly we count them over and over in our memory! Days that start with bright shafts of light piercing the mist above the lake—nights of silver moonlight drifting through the pines—these are never-to-be-forgotten memories. But sweetest of all, we remember voices, softly singing, as the shadows flicker around the council fire on faces dear to us.

Youth comes but once—this is its essence—this Spirit of Greystone. The yearning for finer things, this strong desire to accomplish more, to make ourselves more perfect, to overcome our weaknesses and to strengthen our good points. Here we find our best selves. We think of others, consciously, for perhaps the first time.

Don't forget these high hopes, these deep desires. Don't stop reaching for the finer things you have discovered here. Take these desires home with you and be—A True Greystone Girl, throughout the years to come.

God bless you, each and every one—and may we meet again next year at Greystone.

Sincerely your director,

VIRGINIA SEVIER HANNA

Songs of the Green and Gold

I came to Greystone to get out of town,
To Greystone, to Greystone, and I'm still around.
The moon is shining, the girls are all gay—
I got out of town and decided to stay.
Now, mama, don't preach to me, preach to me,
Mama, don't preach to me,
Let me have fun while I'm young.
Now, mama, don't preach to me, preach to me,
Mama, don't preach to me,
Let me fling till my fling is all flung!
I'm fond of tennis, I love to canoe,
I'm crazy 'bout swimming and horse riding, too,
I'm made for Greystone, it's easy to see,
For Greystone, for Greystone, it's Greystone for me.
Now, mama, don't preach to me, preach to me,
Mama, don't preach to me,
Let me go now, let me roam.
Now, mama, don't preach to me, preach to me,
Mama, don't preach to me,
Or I'll never, no never—don't preach to me, preach to me,
Or I'll never, no never come home.

There's a spot in dear old U.S.A.
Where the girls are gay
All the live-long day;
It's the best spot in all the land
We want you to understand,
We're from Greystone,
Dear old Greystone,
Where the big hydrangeas grow;
Where the girls are pretty
And when you see them smile
You know the reason why we walk a thousand miles
Back to Greystone—dear old Greystone,
Where the skies are blue—
There are lots of good old friends we can't forget,
Greystone, we're strong for you.

Father Time is a crafty man
And he's set in his ways
And we know that we never can
Make him bring back past days;
So campers while we are here
Let's be friends kind and true
We'll have a gay time
In all our play time,
Because we always love to play with you.

So softly comes the day's ending,
As dusk creeps o'er this lake of ours,
While around the camp fire
Our songs rise higher
To make the distant echoes wake.
We're singing to Virginia
And of the camp we love so well,
May we to our friendships be true,
Camp Greystone, we'll loyal be to you.

—Tentalow 12.

If there were witchcraft I'd make two wishes—
A winding road that beckons me to roam,
And then I'd wish for a blazing campfire
To welcome me when I'm returning home.

Chorus:

Memories that linger, constant and true,
Bring back fond visions, campers, dear, of you.
But in this real world there is no witchcraft,
And golden wishes do not grow on trees.
Our fondest daydreams must be the magic
To bring us back those golden memories.

Faithful forever, to Greystone we'll be,
Helping each other in love and loyalty;
Always rememb'ring the friendships we've made,
Never allowing our mem'ries to fade.

Whispering pines, whispering pines,
Underneath the shining sky,
Rustling pines, rustling pines,
In thy breezes rock and sigh.
Purple mountains draped with mist
Shine out like giant amethyst,
Pines and mountains moonlight kist
Their vigils keep.

We got the spirit
We got the rep,
We got the camp that's really hep,
We got the lakes and the mountains and the sky
so blue,
Long with counselors and campers who are friends
e'er true.

We've got Virginia and Mr. Lea, too,
That's enough to pull us through,
Of course, Miss Jean, we think you're swell,
And three cheers to our nurse who keeps us well.

Campers, when you come near,
You're sure to have fun here.

Little squats, big shots, they all come
To the camp that's lots of fun.
We've really got the girls that beat the rest,
Camp Greystone, you're the best!

—Tentalow 10.

Lights out, Greystone,
One more perfect day is through.
Lights out, Greystone,
Guarded by the mountains blue.
Dream on of friends you treasure,
Dream on beneath the stars.
Lights, out, Greystone,
And may your every dream come true.

*Every morn we wake at Greystone
And start upon a lovely day;
Where we ride and swim together
And dance and sing and play.
Oh, the lakes of shining emerald
And sun make up the green and gold.
Keep that spirit high as the years roll by
And never let it e'er grow old.*

*Picture a spot of beauty rare,
Picture a sky so blue and fair,
Paint it with rainbow hue so bright,
Then tone it down with shades of night.
Frame it with inspiration true,
Then let it thrill the heart of you,
A picture of Camp Greystone it will be—
A challenge to you and to me.*

*Remember the times we've had here
Those glorious days so gay;
Remember the friends we've made here,
And don't forget to come back some day.*

*Remember around the camp fire
Amid the mountains blue,
That you all belong to Greystone
And Greystone belongs to you.*
