This Little Booklet Is Presented With The Compliments Of
Virginia Sevier Hanna
Jean Agnew Churchill
and
Libby And Jim Miller
With The Hope That It Will Help To Keep Alive The Beautiful Friendships
Formed At Greystone

TO ONE whose calm good humor and gentle nature is an inspiration to all of us — whose many talents are shared graciously and constantly — and who is admired and respected by all, we dedicate this little booklet . . . .

Pep, smile, you can tell a Greystone girl,
Charm, style, friends around all the while
Pep, smile, charm, style, that's only half,
But most of all we love her laugh.
Ho, Ho, Ho.

Cute, sweet, she always keeps her cabin neat
Happiness, Greystone girls are always best
Cute, sweet, happiness, that's only half
But most of all we love her laugh—
Ho, Ho, Ho, Ho.

Farewell

As the beautiful summer of '67 begins to fade into the past, the time has come once again to say "Farewell." A special beauty seems to dwell in that word. We seem to see two friends, hands clasped, as they part to go their separate ways. "Fare - well," they say, "Journey well and safely, my friend."

We here at Greystone love each one of you girls and are proud of you. Remember as you go out to make your special place in the world — even as you have made your special place at Greystone — that you are GREYSTONE GIRLS, with all those two words can mean. We will be watching your journey through life with love and hope. Do your best and GIVE your best, and take with you upon that journey the secret you have learned at Greystone.

Do you remember the moments around the Council Fire when your throat was tight with happiness as some honor came to one you loved? Do you remember the high ambitions and ideals you gained here? Never forget them — and never cease to grow and develop the best that is in you.

And so, Taps sounds across the darkening lake. We come to the parting of the ways and we are sad. But let us carry, each of us, a bit of Greystone in our hearts, and thus be bound together, though time and space separate us. Nothing can take away from you your golden memories. They are the magic which will bring you back through the years to this, our bit of Heaven on earth — Greystone.

With love we bid you Farewell — and pray that, God willing, we shall meet another year at Greystone.

Sincerely, your Directors,
VIRGINIA SEVIER HANNA
JEAN AGNEW CHURCHILL
LIBBY AND JIM MILLER

CAMP GREYSTONE
TUXEDO, NORTH CAROLINA
AUGUST 14, 1967

Greystone girls, follow me, follow me, follow me
Come, follow me
In the mountains, the Greystone spirit is whispering to us all
Follow me for your goals' perfection is its never ending call.
Greystone girls, follow me, follow me, follow me.

Somewhere my friend, amid the mountains blue
I looked at the cabins all row upon row.
Somewhere a hill, blossoms in green and gold,
And there are dreams — all that your heart can hold.
Some day we'll meet again I know.
Some day when longings for Greystone grow.
'Till we return, think of us now and then
These memories remain 'till we meet again.

The mountains, the valleys, the tall waterfall
The friendships, the laughter, the good times and all.
We're all here together and never alone.
Still we'll remain ever true to our own Greystone.
I came as a camper not too long ago,
There is a camp with friendships strong and true.
I wandered and pondered and what do you know?
I found a home here at Greystone.
