GREYSTONE HORSESHOW — 1972

Farewell

Early this morning I was sitting by the window looking over the still lake—through the morning mist. Quietly a glow of pearly light began to tip the distant trees on the mountain and as I watched, the blazing circle of the sun appeared in fiery splendor—changing the world of shadows and mists to glorious light and color. The path of the sun's rays was brilliant upon the surface of the lake and the sun itself was too strong and beautiful to look upon with the human eye.

I began to think about our life here at Greystone. Some have come back to camp with the memories of past sunrises to give them inspiration and hope for new beginnings, new challenges and new victories. Others have come like children who have never beheld a sunrise—in ignorance of the glory of learning to live unselfishly, and for the good of ALL instead of personal gain. Still others have pessimism in their natures and say to themselves, "This probably won't be a good day—it will probably rain and spoil all my plans."

Each one of us greets the new day with our own eyes. We see the beauty—or "just another sunrise." We see the opportunities for excitement, adventure and service—or we see "another day to get through—somehow." We hope that each sees in the blaze of fiery light the hand of God who gives us warmth and light and hope and new opportunities.

We love you every one, Greystone girls. We see your strengths and your weaknesses. We pray that you will use your strengths with love and wisdom—that you will also recognize your weaknesses and grow in strength through each passing year. Only through dreaming HIGH DREAMS, striving toward the BEST—seeking the good for OTHERS, not ourselves, and following the path that Christ showed us—UNSELFISHNESS, can we grow to be our finest selves.

Never forget the dreams you have dreamed here—the hopes you have gained here. Never give up the struggle to be a stronger and finer person. Perhaps you have gained the courage to accept disappointments or the grace to be a real winner. We will watch you through the years, hoping you have accepted the challenge of Greystone to live a full and unselfish life. We love you, every one, and pray that we shall meet, God willing, another year to greet another sunrise at Greystone.

Lovingly, your directors,
VIRGINIA SEVIER HANNA

GREYSTONE'S SECRET

It is the dawning of the day
We live our lives the unselfish way
Greystone girls are always kind
Friendships here are never hard to find
The truth is found in many ways.

To know what Greystone means to me
Everlasting visions of the "G"
Growing wiser day by day
To the secret of Greystone's way
For strength to know this truth, we pray.

And as our summer comes to a close
The secret's warmth begins to glow
All at once our hearts are blessed
With the secret of unselfishness,
For strength from God, to live this truth,
we pray.
