THE CALL OF THE FIRE

The call of the fire comes to us through the shadows
That follow the close of the day.
Its flames bring us peace and a calmness of spirit
That drive all our troubles away.
We're thankful for days and the joys that they bring us,
For nights, and the rest that they bring.
May we go on believing
In this love we're receiving
Just now 'round the fire as we sing.

GREYSTONE HORSE SHOW — 1973

Champion ..... NANCY BASS
Reserve Champion ..... ANNE BROWN

There is a camp that lies upon a hillside;
That looks across the valley and the hills
And there's a light, forever shines
the softest in the west
And longest waits before the sun goes down.
So if the day has made your soul grow weary
And brought your eyes the shadow of a frown
Just climb the hill that leads you to
Camp Greystone
And watch the clouds light up before the sun goes down.

To the girls we'll not forget them
Through the years that lie ahead,
To Greystone where we met them
And the wonderful times we've had.
The blue skies and the pine trees,
The Greystone Spirit strong,
The Council Fires that made us feel so good
The happy times we've spent with the dear,
dear friends we've met—
Oh, we'll miss them when we're gone.
So a toast to the past
A toast to the future
And let there be no sorrow.
For remember when the sun goes down
It returns with a bright tomorrow.

Farewell

The time of parting has come. How quickly the golden days of our Greystone summer have slipped by—each leaving us with its precious memories—never to be forgotten as the years come and go.

The hot tears spring to our eyes as we look across the misty lake to the pines beneath which your campfire still flickers. You are asleep and dreaming. Last night's soft songs seem to drift toward us like an echo of all the beautiful things that Greystone means.

We seem to see your faces, each so dear to us, as they look up beyond the council fire. How we love you. We have seen you as you accepted the challenge we gave you to BE your best self—to develop all the tremendous potential that lies in you. We have watched you as each day brought small triumphs—a new skill learned, an honor gracefully accepted, a bad habit overcome or perhaps a temper under better control. These things have made our hearts glad for you as you “grew in wisdom and stature and favor with God and man.” You have learned to accept disappointments as well as to rejoice in another's victory. But most of all we love the growth of spirit as you have opened your hearts to God's love and leadership of the Lord.

We part from you with love and bittersweet sorrow. We remember campers of other years—and it makes our hearts lighten that often YOU are their children and even grandchildren—coming back to the world of Greystone where ideals are the highest and each one STRIVES to be a better, finer person. Never forget these ideals, girls—never forget the Greystone secret of UNSELFISHNESS—for with God's help you can carry back into your outside world a bit of Greystone.

We love you each and every one and pray, God willing, that we will meet another year at Greystone.

Lovingly, your directors,
VIRGINIA SEVIER HANNA

FROM ALL ACROSS THE WORLD WE WANT TO SAY “HI”

1. As we all meet together at Camp Greystone
We think of our parents and we think of our home
But we're so glad to be here,
Yes, we're glad that we came
To Camp Greystone, this camp of fame.

Bonjour . . . . . Bonjour

Yes, we're so glad to be here—
Yes, we're glad that we came
To Camp Greystone, this camp of fame.

2. In this camp of fame Tante Corrie has her place,
From Holland she came with her shining face.
Corrie came to spread the gospel,
Her companion's name was Ellen,
One day we'll meet them up in Heaven!
