Farewell

The time has come to say goodbye. How quickly our days at camp have sped by! It is hard to part with you for we have grown to love each of you for the individual that you are. The tears come easily as we see you go away from Greystone — but God has been good to us — for He has given us memory to bring back each happy moment with you.

We remember when you came to camp — seven short weeks ago. Some of you we already knew and loved. We expected so much of you — you came with radiant smiles and joyful reunions with friends of other years. You have developed your potential; you have set high goals and progressed steadily toward them. We love you for the growth you have shown — but most of all we love you for the spirit of helpfulness to new campers and new counselors, for the enthusiasm you show in each activity at camp and for the good sportsmanship that you teach all around you as you accept defeat graciously or win modestly. We feel that you have truly learned the Greystone Secret of Unselfishness.

And all you campers whose first year this was at Greystone — how new and different it was to you just weeks ago! But all of you have become true Greystone girls and have learned the art of living together happily as one big family.

Now as the flames of our last Council Fire burn low and you go quietly down the hill, out into the big world from which you came, we remember you with love. Never forget the things you have learned here. Never forget to strive toward a high, and yet a higher star. Never forget the secret of happiness, which is unselfishness, and take it as your goal in life, to live first for God, second for others and lastly for yourself. You will find that the joy you have discovered here will go with you through life and that your days will be bright with friends and loving family. The things you give away — smiles, thoughtfulness, helpfulness, love — will come back to you multiplied many times.

And now we part — God bless you each and every one. May you rest secure in the hollow of His hand. Remember that we love you, and look forward, God willing, to your return to Greystone another year.

Lovingly, your directors,
Virginia Sevier Hanna
Libby and Jim Miller

Bless This Camp

Bless this Camp, O Lord, we pray,
Make it safe by night and day,
Bless these friendships, true and strong,
May their spirit linger long.
Bless the mountains towering tall,
Let Thy peace lie over all;

Bless our hearts that they may be
Ever open to joy and love.
Through Camp Greystone it does ring,
Praise and honor we do sing.
Council Fire ablazing there,
With smoke ascending like a prayer,
Bless us all that we may be,
Fit, O Lord, to wear the "G".
Greystone with ideals so high,
Ever reaching toward the sky;
Greystone colors, Green and Gold,
Like Thy Spirit, ne'er grow old.

There Is A Camp

There is a camp that lies upon a hilltop,
That looks across a valley and a hill.
And there the light forever shines the softest in the west,
And longest waits before the sun goes down.
So if the day has made your soul grow weary,
And brought your eyes the shadow of a frown,
Just climb the hill that leads you to Camp Greystone,
And watch the clouds light up before the sun goes down.

GREYSTONE'S CREED

In the earth and sky, I have found an inspiration—
All nature lives, and smiles,
And grows toward perfection—
If I thus live, and smile, and grow—
Sincerity,
Deep as the blue above our mountains,
Will rise within me—
Stong, full-blooded courage
Will race through my veins
Like a mighty wind roaring through trees—
The sun will soon brand upon my soul
In hot golden letters
Ideals of honesty and truth—
And kindness will be taught me
In the night
By the soft hushed softness of rain.
Because the stars seem to link
Earth and eternity,
I will strive
Ever toward a high and yet a higher star.
Thus slowly
I will draw myself nearer to God.
