

CAMPFIRE SONG
THIS CAMP IS YOUR CAMP,
THIS CAMP IS MY CAMP

(Tune: "This Land Is Your Land")

This camp is your camp, this camp is my camp
From the rustic cabins to the rolling hillsides
From the rustling treetops, to the clear lake water
Falling Creek is home for you and me.
When I am swimming or playing tennis,
I get a feeling, He is all around us
His ever presence is awe-inspiring
Falling Creek is home for you and me.

Chorus:

The weeks go swiftly and the summer's ended
But friendships linger as ties are mended
I sense inside me, the secret found here,
Falling Creek is home for you and me.

Chorus:

CAMP CHEER
ON FOR FALLING CREEK

(Tune: "On Wisconsin")

On for Falling Creek!
On for Falling Creek!
Colors of Green and Gold,
Standing high upon your mountain,
A beacon in our morning mist, so—

On for Falling Creek!
On for Falling Creek!
Striving for the truth,
Love, campers, work and play the live-long day.

COUNCIL FIRE SONG

HEY LISTEN

(Tune: "Hey, Simpson")

It started just four years ago
When a dream began to live.
People searching, looking;
and not afraid to give.

REFRAIN: Hey Listen!
There's a place for you and me.
Hey Listen
It's a camp called Falling Creek.

Way up on a mountainside
Jim Miller found some land.
He'd finally stopped his searching,
The Lord had shown His hand.
The problems were too big for them
And Jim began to pray;
Folks say that miracles don't come true—
But here we are today.

REFRAIN

But a camp is not the land around
Nor the buildings that are here;
It's the people who will give their time
To make the summer dear.
They're people who are searching,
For something that is true.
The secret comes from deep within—
It comes from me and you.

REFRAIN

Well that was four short years ago
And people here have seen—
The things the Lord can make come true...
With a man, a camp, and a dream.
